Notice to Alien of File Custody Review

You are detained in the custody of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), and you are required to cooperate with ICE in effecting your removal from the United States. If ICE has not removed you from the United States within the removal period as set forth in INA 241(a) (normally 90-days of either: 1) your entering ICE custody with a final order of removal, deportation or exclusion, or 2) the date of any final order you receive while you are in ICE custody), ICE's Deciding Official will review your case for consideration of release on an Order of Supervision. Release, however, is dependent on your demonstrating to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that you will not pose a danger to the community and will not present a flight risk.

Your custody status will be reviewed on or about 07/29/2019. The deciding official may consider, but is not limited to considering the following:

- 1 Criminal convictions and criminal conduct;
- 2 Other criminal and immigration history
- 3 Sentence(s) imposed and time actually served
- 4 History of escapes, failures to appear for judicial and other proceedings, and other defaults;
- 5 Probation history;
- 6 Disciplinary problems while incarcerated
- 7 Evidence of reabilitative effort or recidivism;
- 8 Equities in the United States;
- 9 Cooperation in obtaining your travel document;
- 10 Any available mental health reports.

You may submit any documentation you wish to be reviewed in support of your release, prior to the date listed above, to the attention of the Officer and address below. English translations must be provided pursuant to 8 CFR 103.2(b)(3). An attorney or other person may submit materials on your behalf. The deciding official will notify you of the decision in your case. Attached to this notice is a list of free or low cost legal representatives who may be able to provide assistance to you in preparing your case.

You have been found to be inadmissible to the United States under the provisions of section 212(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act) or deportable under the provisions of section 237 of the Act as a Visa Waiver Pilot Program violator. In accordance with the provisions of section 212(a)(9) of the Act, you are prohibited from entering, attempting to enter, or being in the United States

- ☐ For a period of 5 years from the date of your departure from the United States as a consequence of your having been found inadmissible as an arriving alien in proceedings under section 235(b)(1) or 240 of the Act.
- ☒ For a period of 10 years from the date of your departure from the United States as a consequence of your having been ordered removed in proceedings under any section of the Act other than section 235(b)(1) or 240, or of being ordered excluded under section 236 of the Act in proceedings commenced prior to April 1, 1997.
- ☐ For a period of 20 years from the date of your departure from the United States as a consequence of being found inadmissible and being previously excluded, deported, or removed from the United States.
- ☐ At any time because in addition to being found inadmissible, you have been convicted of a crime designated as an aggravated felony.

After your removal has been effected, you must request and obtain permission from the Secretary of Homeland Security to reapply for admission to the United States during the period indicated. You must obtain such permission before commencing your travel to the United States. Application forms for requesting permission to reapply for admission may be obtained by contacting any United States Consulate or U.S. Department of Homeland Security office. Refer to the above file number when requesting forms or information.

WARNING FOR ALL REMOVED ALIENS: It is a crime under Title 18 United States Code, Section 1326, for an alien who has been removed from the United States to enter, attempt to enter, or be found in the United States without the Secretary of Homeland Security's express consent. Depending on the circumstances of the removal, conviction for this crime can result in imprisonment of a period of from 2 to 20 years and/or a fine up to $250,000.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO SEX OFFENDERS: Federal Law requires a convicted sex offender, including an alien who has been removed from or otherwise departed the United States and subsequently returns, to register in each jurisdiction in the United States in which he or she resides, is employed, or is a student. Violation of this requirement can result in prosecution and imprisonment for up to 10 years under Title 18 United States Code, Section 2250.
